ACTS
OF THE APOSTLES
Acts 9:1-31
Acts 9:1-31

1. Saul reminds us that no one is beyond the reach of God’s amazing grace.
“Electing love has selected some of the worst to be made the best. Redeeming love has bought, especially bought, many of the worst to be the reward of the Savior’s passion.”

- C. H. Spurgeon

The Sinner’s Friend
Acts 9:1-31

1. Saul reminds us that no one is beyond the reach of God’s amazing grace
2. Jesus reminds us of the gracious role of Divine initiative
“God isn’t fair: if he were fair, we’d all be in the soup. God is good: crazy, stark-staring-bonkers good.”

- Robert F. Capon
Acts 9:1-31

1. Saul reminds us that no one is beyond the reach of God’s amazing grace
2. Jesus reminds us of the gracious role of Divine initiative
3. Ananias reminds us that serving the Lord will seem risky at times
“Our faith is not really tested until God asks us to bear what seems unbearable, do what seems unreasonable, and expect what seems impossible.”

- Warren Wiersbe

Be Obedient
Acts 9:1-31

1. Saul reminds us that no one is beyond the reach of God’s amazing grace.
2. Jesus reminds us of the gracious role of Divine initiative.
3. Ananias reminds us that serving the Lord will seem risky at times.
4. Paul reminds us that growing in grace is more like a marathon than a sprint.
“In the Book of Acts faith was for each believer a beginning, not an end; it was a journey, not a bed in which to lie while waiting for the day of our Lord’s triumph. Believing was not a once-done act; it was more than an act, it was an attitude of heart and mind which inspired and enabled the believer to take up his cross and follow the Lamb whithersoever He went.”

- A. W. Tozer
“The question is not ‘What kind of a God does that?’ but rather ‘What kind of a person does not bow down to a God who can do that?’”

- Karen Swallow Prior
